THE THEME

We used a pink, black and white colour scheme to create a sense of unity between the bride, the groom and the bridal party. On arrival each guest received a pink boutonniere to wear. We used goldfish as our decorations – Gary’s “babies” when I met him were his tropical fish. One of the first gifts he bought me was four fish for the aquarium, so it was only fitting to have amazing live centerpieces.

COST OF WEDDING

No one will tell me! (I panicked after we went over the budget and the bills were hidden after that).

HOW DID YOU MEET?

A misdirected phone call got us talking, a very long coffee meeting followed 3 days later and the rest is history.

UNIQUE

The involvement of our three children (Anthony 7yrs, Angela 5yrs & Benedict 18mths) who sang “So long, Farewell” to guests before leaving.
